Pirate Basketball Offers Free Admission With Hurricane Sandy Relief Donation

FREE ADMISSION

WITH HURRICANE SANDY RELIEF DONATIONS THIS WEEKEND!

Posted: Nov 14, 2012

SAVANNAH, Ga. – As part of a campus-wide effort to help the victims of Hurricane Sandy, the Armstrong Atlantic State University athletic department is pitching in to help those in need. This weekend the Armstrong's women's basketball team plays host to the Fairfield Inn & Suites Pirate Classic and is offering free admission to anyone who donates to the relief effort.

For Armstrong students, faculty and staff, who get into the games for free with their Pirate card, they will be given a free Pirate t-shirt for their donation.

Specifically, the university is asking for bottled water, peanut butter and disinfectant hand wipes. Armstrong is partnering with Savannah Responds, a local non-profit organization who has been coordinating with the Governor's Office in New Jersey to get donated items to where they are needed most.

Armstrong opens the Pirate Classic on Friday against Lynn University at 7 p.m. They will follow that game on Saturday with a 3:30 p.m. tip versus Anderson University. Flagler College plays Anderson at 5 p.m. on Friday and Lynn at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday.

For more information, contact Assistant Athletic Director Michael Smoose at 912-344-3236 or michael.smoose@armstrong.edu.
